Revelation 10

Interlude before the end...

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

¹ I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. ² He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³ and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. ⁴ Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

⁵ The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven ⁶ and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer, ⁷ but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

⁸ Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.

⁹ So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

¹⁰ Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. ¹¹ And he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

7 Thunders

"Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

Prophecy Again

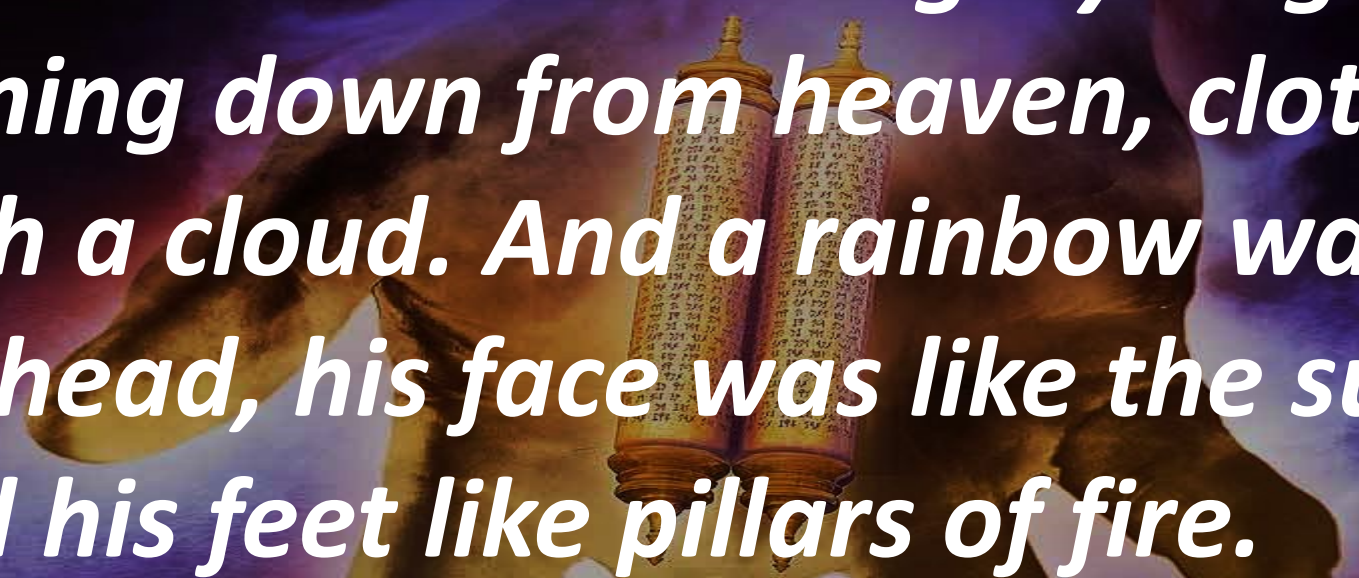

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Just completed horrors of first 6 trumpet judgments, chapters 8 and 9
- Another “interlude” before 7th trumpet.
- 7th Trumpet holds last set, the 7 Bowls (vials)
- End of chapter 9, saddest verses in scripture...
“[yet, therefore, still] they did not repent.”
- No time advances. 7th trumpet sounds 11:15, but Bowl judgments don't begin until chapter 16.
- Very interesting events between then and now.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

¹ I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire.

An illustration of a mighty angel, depicted as a large, muscular figure with a rainbow on his head. He is holding a scroll that contains text, likely the Revelation text. The background is dark and cloudy, with a rainbow visible. The text is overlaid on the image in a bold, white, italicized font.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Spirited debate about identity of this “angel.”
- “Angels” (Gr. aggelos = messenger) mentioned 76 times in Revelation
- Another “angel” or someone else?
- Some see this messenger as Messiah
- “coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud” = one clue used to identify messenger as Jesus.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

God is seen clothed in a cloud from Exodus
through Revelation....

Exodus 16:10;
19:9; 24:15;
34:5;
Psalms 104:3
Matthew 17
Luke 21:27
Acts 1:9
Revelation 1:7

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “Rainbow” could be allusion to rainbow around throne in 4:3.
- “face like the sun” reference to radiance of Jesus (1:16), Matthew 17 (transfiguration)?
- “feel like pillars of fire,” seen in 1:15
- “voice, as when a lion roars” (v. 3) – Lion of the Tribe of Judah?
- OT as “Angel of the LORD”
- Angel has great authority, power.

For these reasons, and others, many identify this angel as Yeshua.

Others believe NOT Jesus...why?

- Merely very powerful angel, not Jesus:
- Gr. word “another” is specific, means “another like the others.” Indicates this angel just like other angels already seen.
- “Rainbows” = sign of God’s covenants, don’t have to refer to throne of God.
- Angels in the Presence of God (like those in chapters 8 and 9), may also radiate the light of His Presence (“face like the sun”)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Angels powerful –given varying powers and authorities by God. Angelic “hierarchy”
- “Voice like lion” may indicate loud and commanding, not that he IS a “lion.”
- Clear evidence when Jesus appears (chapter 1, 19, etc.) No question. There IS question here.
- One other very important clue later in text seems strong evidence this is NOT Jesus (later!)

Huge debate about identity of this angel

Mantre

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

COMMENTARY: “The identity of this strong angel is debated by Bible teachers. Some contend that this is Christ. Since Christ appeared as the angel of God in the Old Testament, this would be another occasion in which He appears to the nation of Israel. Others say it is not Christ but an unidentified angel. The Lord Jesus Christ does not appear in the book of Revelation as an angel. In fact, we will look in vain for a presentation of him as an angel after the incarnation. Ever since Jesus took on flesh, died for the sins of men, was crucified, was resurrected, and ascended into heaven, He has always appeared as the Son of God in His essential deity. Although this angel possesses some Godlike characteristics, he is not God... Although far beneath the character of God, they [angels] are created beings of an unusually high order.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

It is rather interesting to see that angels play a prominent part in the book of Revelation...they are always in a position of service. They do not create things, but fulfill the administration of God in the affairs of men. This is not the first time we have been introduced to a mighty angel, for in chapter 5:2 we find the same word used, though there it is translated "strong." Don't be deceived by the glorious description of this angel...Actually, in 18:1 we find another angel, pronouncing doom on Babylon, having great power and so much glory that "the earth was made bright with his glory." No one seems pressed to identify this angel as the Lord Jesus Christ; consequently we should not think it strange that God could have other mighty angels that could easily fit the description of the one in our text." ("Revelation Unveiled," LaHaye)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

COMMENTARY: “Three angelic beings are identified as “strong” in the Revelation. The first occurrence appears in Revelation 5:2. The second is in Revelation 10:1 and the final occurrence is in Revelation 18:21. What is the significance of the “strong angels?” The characteristics associated with “another strong angel” in Revelation 10:1-7 are closely parallel to an angelic being described in Daniel 10:5-6 and 12:5-7. These similarities have given some interpreters the basis to see a connection between these two texts. Based on Revelation 5:2, 10:1 and 18:21, strong angels are revelatory angels. That is, they specifically communicate to man information from God. In Revelation 5:2, the strong angel communicates the identity of the person worthy to open the sealed scroll. In Revelation 10:1, he communicates a significant transition in the program of God. In Revelation 18:21, he communicates the destiny of the capital city of the beast empire. Similarly, an angelic being in Daniel 10 communicates the destiny of the Jews and Jerusalem. (RevelationCommentary.org)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Debate rages, need to ask, “Does it really matter?”
- Bottom line... what angel does and says most important
- May not be possible to concretely, without question, identify him
- Always avoid speculation, avoid man’s opinions, and especially any one man’s “unique, private and supposedly divine” interpretation! (expected we will not understand everything!)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

² He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³ and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “little book” not “codex” book as we know it. A scroll...(more in a moment on this scroll)
- Angel has one foot on land and one on sea = he has authority (or speaks for one in authority) over both. (more on this in a bit...)
- Whether “the Lion of the Tribe of Judah” or merely a very powerful authoritative angel, speaks with same authority and majesty as a lion in the jungle, commanding attention.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. ⁴ Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Notice: not told WHAT angel cried in a loud voice.
- Only hear that WHEN he “cries out” 7 thunders “uttered” their voices.
- What did the angel say? Like answer to so many questions here, best answer is....WE DON'T KNOW!
- About the 7 thunders... Psalm 29, phrase “the voice of the LORD” likened to thunder, and used 7 times: (“Coincidence is not a kosher word!”)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

³ The voice of the LORD is over the waters; The God of glory thunders; The LORD is over many waters. ⁴ The voice of the LORD is powerful; The voice of the LORD is full of majesty. ⁵ The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon. ⁶ He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox. ⁷ The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire. ⁸ The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh. ⁹ The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth, And strips the forests bare; And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- For this reason, Jews (Rabbinic interpretation) consider God to have 7 voices, like thunder. When they hear “7 thunders” would immediately consider to be voice of God.
- Are these “utterances” the voice of God? We don’t know. Perhaps!
- Either way, Psalm 29 great reminder of majesty and power of the One who controls everything – the One who ordained and will perfectly execute the entire contents of the Revelation!

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Like identity of angel, differing speculation about what (or who) voices are, and about what they said.
- UNFOUNDED SPECULATION IS DANGEROUS!! Not to mention just a bit stupid! When voice said they were sealed, that's what was meant. They are sealed, beyond our knowing.
- Be skeptical of those who claim to know what thunders spoke. John only human to hear them.
- God has not revealed everything to us, yet.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Initially John told to write everything he saw and heard. But here given specific instructions NOT to write them.
- Notice voice that gives instruction is NOT the angel, but a voice from heaven. Is this God? Once again, we don't know. Maybe!
- ONLY things sealed in Revelation. Daniel told to seal up his book (total), but John given opposite instructions in 22:10 – “Do not seal the words of prophecy of this book...”
- Seems Daniel becoming “unsealed” in this day.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

⁵ The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven ⁶ and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer,...

Revelation 10:5-6

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Clue here perhaps this mighty angel not Messiah.
- Angel takes oath, swearing on “Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it...” Who is One angel swears on? No question, Jesus. Swearing on Name of Yeshua.
- Some interpret this = angel (“messenger”) swearing on “Himself,” just as God took oath when he entered into covenant with Abraham. Hebrews 6:13 “For when God made a promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Many believe, however, if this angel is Jesus, we would have been told He swore on Himself, as Hebrews indicates. We aren't told this.
- Seems mighty angel swearing by Name higher than himself –Name of the Creator of all things, Yeshua.
- Debate about identity of “angel” continues, but important what he declares and facilitates, not who he is.
- We must be content with *not knowing a lot of things in this book.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “There should be delay no longer...” until this time God’s very gracious, longsuffering, patient with mankind. Has seemingly delayed final outpouring of judgments.
- Why? So all who would come to Him, do. Remember, He desires that NONE perish, and extends His grace period.
- However, grace periods also end. Not for believers (where there is always an abundance of grace) but for unbelievers. TIME UP for unbelieving world.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “delay” (KJV) = “time.” In other words, no more time.
- Greek = chronos, implies interval, season or opportunity. Interval of grace, time of salvation, almost over.
- When 7th trumpet sounds, last set of judgments poured out one after other in quick succession.

Apparently near end of tribulation period.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Reminder: God's grace has time limitation for unbelievers. Paul says "today is the day of salvation." (2 Cor. 6:2)
- For those who don't have a relationship with God... don't wait!

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Even more sobering... “The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

⁷ but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

Mystery of God completed

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- When 7th trumpet sounds (11:15) “mystery of God” finished.
- Greek “finished” = teleo, implies completion of a plan. Last trumpet sounds, scroll fully open, all judgments literally come tumbling out one right after the other, completing this plan of God.

Plan of Redemption Completed!

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “Mystery” of God? Several in scripture, musterion literally = secret until revelation or completion.
- All “mysteries” in scripture in NT. None in OT, except allusions: “Can you search out the deep things of God? Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?” (Job 11:7)
- 22 singular references (mystery) 5 plural ref. (mysteries).
- “Mysteries” NOT hidden. Revealed by Holy Spirit.
- However, cannot be discerned by unbelievers who don’t know Word of God and not seeking Truth.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Entire redemptive plan of God, from Genesis to Revelation, can be known by those seeking the Truth.
- These = formal “mysteries” to us until Holy Spirit reveals them and hearts prepared to receive them.
- The “mystery of God” (in this verse) involves all of this – the whole plan, as He revealed it to His prophets. These are the “deep things” of God.
- Plan formulated before beginning of world, and with final round of judgments man’s dominion ends, God’s will begin - and last through eternity.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

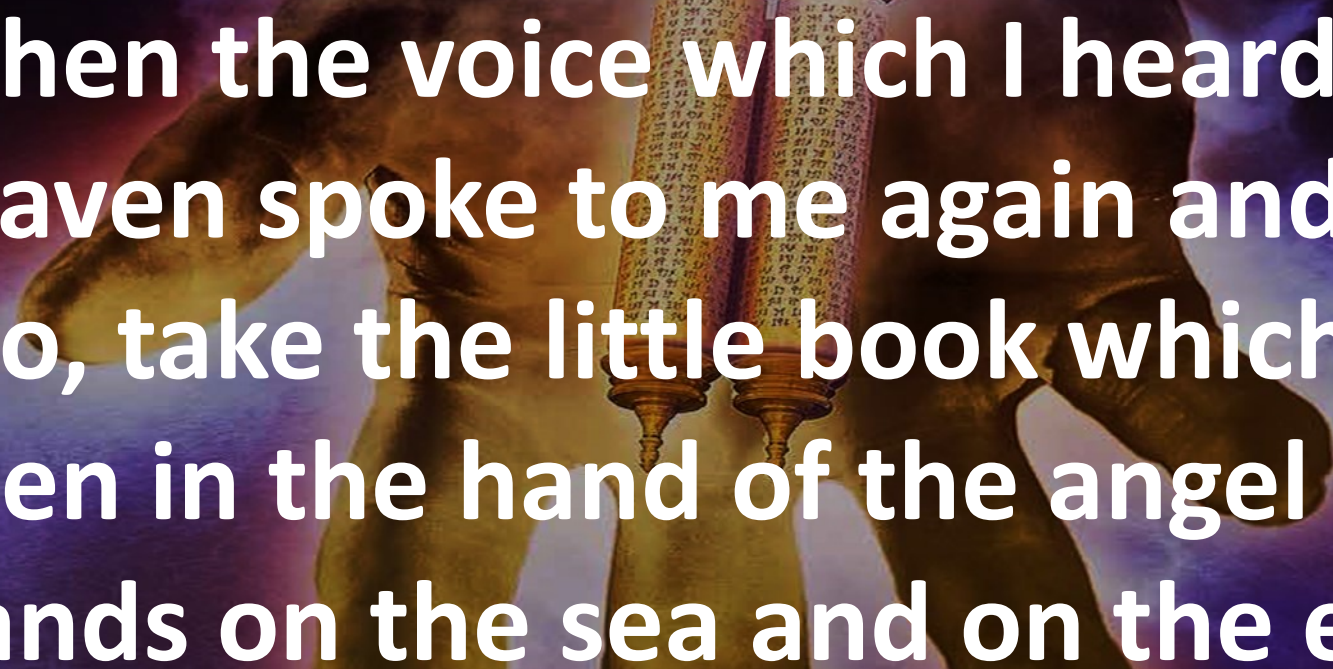

- Many things still a “mystery” to us. Each learns, tutored by Holy Spirit in different ways, at different paces. And, not everything is revealed yet.
- We all have questions. Faith = believing what we can't see yet, without knowing all the answers.
- When all judgments complete, and evil completely eliminated, will see full manifestation of His divine power and majesty. Our questions will have divine answers, not human speculation.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Prophets wrote best as they/we could understand, but not in full revelation.
- Reference to prophets may be clue to what is in “little book.”
- Basic plan, outline, of God’s redemptive work revealed through the prophets. Perhaps that is what is in this little book.
- “soon, all will be revealed!”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

An illustration of an angel's hands holding two scrolls of text. The angel is depicted in a dark, ethereal setting with a purple and blue glow. The scrolls are open, showing columns of text. The angel's hands are large and detailed, with long fingers. The background is a soft, hazy light, suggesting a celestial or divine atmosphere.

⁸ Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Angel not speaking here. Voice from heaven. Voice of authority. God? WE DON'T KNOW!
- Study of Revelation requires we do not leap to conclusions, or be too ready to believe a “popular” idea about something.
- So much we simply do NOT know. Can have basic understanding/knowledge of content and cause, but complete identification of every person, event, timetable and detail is impossible....until it happens.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- “...take the little book...” What is this book? Not “book” but scroll. Everything then written on scrolls.
- Some think it is original 7-sealed scroll of judgment now fully open. But don't see this actually happen until chapter 11, judgments don't begin until chapter 16.
- Bibliaridion = literally “little” scroll. Original = biblion, larger scroll. Distinction between two. Don't seem to be one and same.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Believed to be short, limited revelation, perhaps about remaining time of judgment.
- Some say last 3 ½ years (Jesus' "Great Tribulation") begins at 7th trumpet blast in chapter 11. Difficult (virtually impossible!) to determine timeline.
- Precisely what is in this little book not known. Could be prophecies (OT) pertaining to this period. Could even be new prophecies.
- What John told to do with book further identifies it as Word of God.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

A dramatic scene featuring a large, unrolled scroll with ancient script, possibly Hebrew or Greek, resting on a surface. The scroll is illuminated by a warm, golden light. In the background, a hand is visible, holding a smaller scroll. The overall atmosphere is one of mystery and ancient revelation.

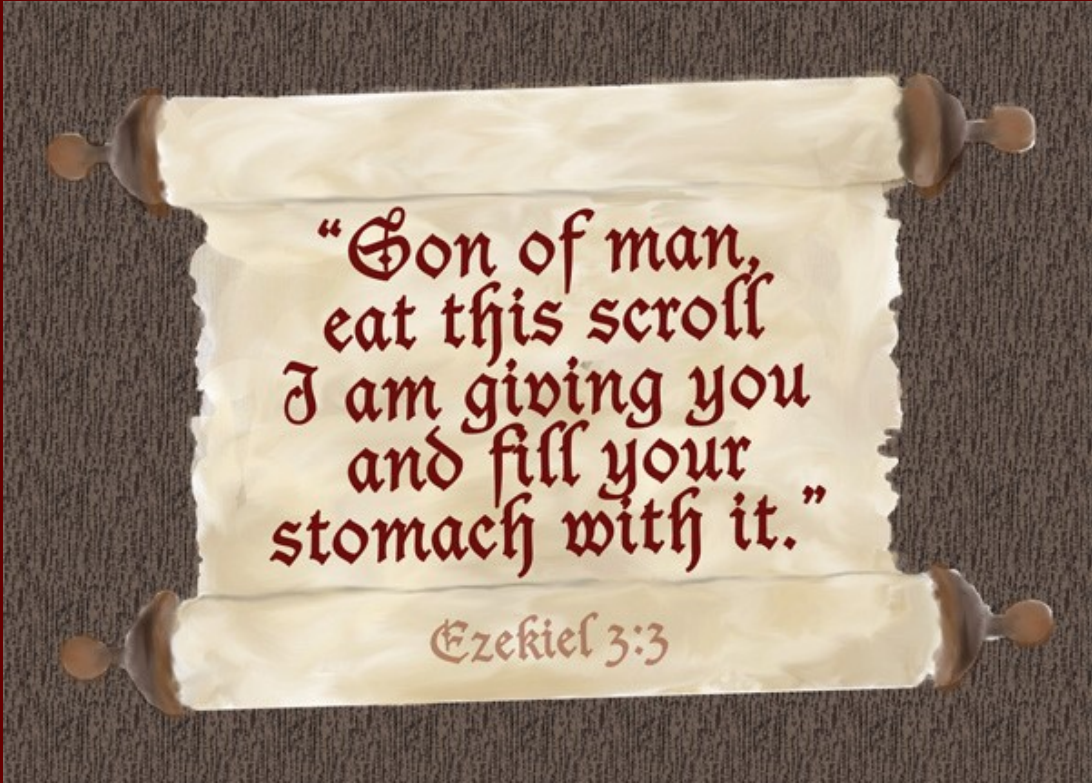

⁹ So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- John supposed to “eat” this little book?
- Concept of “eating” the Word not new in scripture.
- “Your words were found, and I ate them, and your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart; for I am called by Your Name, O LORD God of Hosts.”
(Jeremiah 15:16)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

A feltboard scroll with a light beige background and dark brown text. The scroll is unrolled and held in place by four wooden pegs. The text is written in a stylized, calligraphic font.

“Son of man,
eat this scroll
I am giving you and fill your stomach with it.”

Ezekiel 3:3

- “Moreover He said to me, ‘Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.’ So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll. And He said to me, ‘Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you.’ So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness.’ (Ezekiel 3:1-3)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Jeremiah and Ezekiel called to prophesy to Israel, and speak of end times prophetically.
- John added to select group told to “eat” Word of God.
- Prophecies given AFTER ingesting the scroll, Word of God. Prophets had to be full of God’s Word in order to speak the Word.
- Eating a necessary function of survival for body. Body will die without nourishment. In same way, soul will die without spiritual nourishment.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Word likened to food in scripture (bread Matthew 4:4, milk 1 Peter 2:2, 1 Corinthians 3:2; meat same verse, honey Psalms.
- David: “How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!” (Psalm 119:103) and “The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.” (Psalm 19:9-10)
- Important: even JUDGMENT of God true and righteous, and SWEET. It is pure and right.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- To those who love God, His Word is delightful, sweet and nourishing. Gives life and vitality to our souls.
- To those who reject Him it is bitter, and makes them sick.
- Understanding God is right in His judgment is sweet, but realizing many are lost is bitter.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- John must ingest a little more of God's Word to complete this prophecy.
- Would be like honey, sweet and nourishing, as is ALL of God's Word, regardless of its content.
- But once "digested" would be bitter, because judgment is bitter.
- This Word of God = "bittersweet." Always sweet to feast on His Word, but some content hard to stomach.
- John experienced this bitterness, especially with what remained in this vision.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Earlier reference to prophets ("...the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets." v. 7) may indicate Word to be "eaten" = what prophets originally spoke about this time.
- Content of Revelation not really new, is scattered throughout Bible, brought here in one place at culmination of God's plan.
- Perhaps sweet predictions of Jesus' soon return in contrast to bitter pronouncement of remaining terrible judgments. (the 3rd woe)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

COMMENTARY: "It is sweet to know what God is going to do, but when you find out that judgment is coming, it is bitter...If you and I can take delight in reading this section of the Word of God and the judgments that are to fall upon the earth, then we need to do a great deal of praying to get the mind of God. It is sweet to know the Book of Revelation and what God intends to do, but when we find out that judgment is coming to the Christ-rejecting world around us, we cannot rejoice in that. The prophecy becomes bitter. There is another very real application of this. ...

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

Many folk begin the study of prophecy with enthusiasm, but when they find that it is applicable to their life and that it makes demands on them personally, they lose interest, and it becomes a bitter thing. Many people say, "I don't want to hear about the Book of Revelation. I don't like prophecy. It frightens me!" May I say to you that it is supposed to do that, but it should be in your mouth sweet as honey. Unfortunately, there are a lot of people who like to study prophecy because of the natural curiosity to know the future, but they will discover that there is nothing in the Word of God that ministers more to a holy life than the thoughtful study of prophecy....

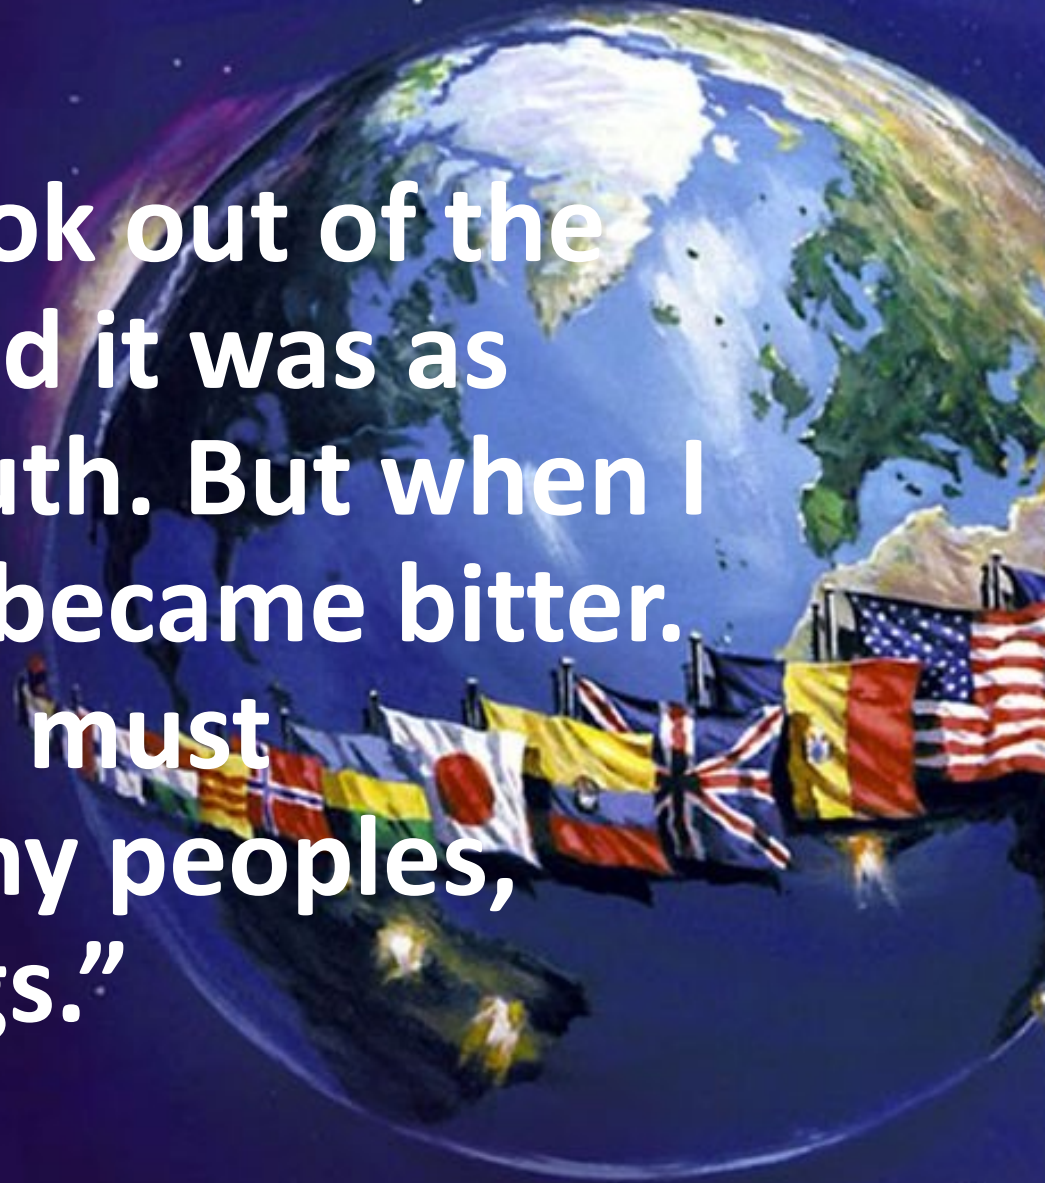

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

To study prophecy and live a dirty life will only lead to abnormality. The reason we hear so much abnormality in the interpretation of prophecy in our day is that the Word of God is not having its way in the hearts and lives of the folk who study it. It is unfortunate that people will get interested in prophecy, but not in Christian living.” (McGee)

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

10 Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

11 And he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Greek “about” = epi, =variously translated as about, among, concerning, in regard to.
- However, may also be translated = “against.”
- In other words, John will be prophesying about, and most likely against, many peoples, nations, tongues and kings.
- Angel telling John “it’s not over yet.” Despite horror John already seen, ...more to come.
- Three woes, have only seen two in last two trumpet blasts. One remains.

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

- Final woe might concern this group: many peoples, nations, tongues and kings. Will include all on planet who reject God's free eternal salvation.
- So far only 6 trumpets have blasted. 7th will not blow until chapter 11, Bowl Judgments (contained in the 7th trumpet) not poured out until chapter 16.
- When they do, upon full completion, entire redemptive and judgmental plan of God, the “mystery of God will be finished.”

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

7 Thunders

"Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

Revelation 10

No more delays!

Personal Thoughts

“Interesting, but what does this have to do with me?”

- Depends on whether or not you have received the free gift of God.
- Two groups on earth, those who believe and are saved, and those who reject and are lost.
- “today” messages for both groups here...

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

FOR UNBELIEVERS:

- Don't wait too long to believe and be saved!
- God's mercy/grace limited to time known only to Him.
- He will push and pull and draw you, but eventually if you resist, will be sent a "strong delusion" to believe the lie.
- If you are studying merely out of curiosity, with no intention of believing, you are on very dangerous ground. Your eternal future is in jeopardy.
- Today, now, is the day of salvation.
- If you seek Him honestly, you will find Him.

IF THIS IS

REVELATION FELTBOARD: Chapter 10

FOR BELIEVERS:

- EAT, digest, be nourished often by Word of God. Our spirits need this nourishment = allows us to know Him, and His Plan.
- Without His Word we starve spiritually, and aren't equipped to survive this life.
- God speaks through His Word, and Holy Spirit within. We need to hear His voice.
- Bible is His love letter to you.
- If we seek Him, we will find Him. Have questions, need answers? ASK HIM!

Yevarekh-kha Adonai veyishmerekha

May the LORD bless you and keep you

Ya'er Adonai panav elekha vihunneka

May the LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you

Yissa Adonai panav elekha viyasem lekha shalom.

May the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.
